

1. Joseph COTTLE #180, b. 17 Mar 1772 in Botetourt Co., VA, USA,¹ (son of William Uriah COTTLE #2159 and Elizabeth ??? #2110). He married 7 May 1799, Nancy NICKELL #181, b. circa 1785, (daughter of Isaac NICKELL #2160 and Margaret CURRY #2161) d. 1850 in Morgan Co., KY, USA. Joseph died 1852 in Morgan Co., KY, USA. In Greenbrier Court in 1809. In Montgomery Co., KY in 1810 with only 1 of his 4 children. Believe the child with him was Isaac with Uriah, Rebecca, and baby David staying with John Cottle in Monroe Co., (W)VA, which just exactly accounts for the 3 children listed for John in the 1810 Monroe Co. census.

Update to the above: that was the apparent story as derived from a transcript of the Montgomery Co. (reconstructed) census list. I've since looked at the original (on microfilm) and it appears that all 4 of his children were with him. Of course the census list was put together from tax lists after the original was lost and there may have been a period of time when 3 of his children were with his brother in Virginia but joined him later that year. Note that he is also listed in the reconstructed 1810 Virginia census.

- May be the Jacob Cottle listed on the 1799 Monroe County tax list and - as a resident of the county in Morton's "History of Monroe County." One list I've seen for Monroe County actually lists him and doesn't list a Jacob.

Joseph Cottle was born March 17, 1772 in either Augusta or Botetourt County, Virginia. He was living in Fayette County, Kentucky, when he entered the army during September, 1790. He enlisted at Georgetown, Kentucky, taking the place of another man who had been drafted. The enlistment was for only (??) month's duration, and at the end of that tour he re-enlisted. His application for a pension, in 1832, was rejected on the basis his service was not in the Revolutionary War, but was in the Indian Wars, for which no pensions were allowed.

During the time he was in service he was marched, first, to the vicinity of Toledo, Ohio, where he was engaged (sic) in conflict with the Indians at "Maumee Town." The Americans were defeated and retreated to fort Washington, opposite the mouth of the Licking River, where Cincinnati now stands. He was there for some time before being discharged and returning home to Fayette County, Kentucky.

In August, 1792, he volunteered and was accepted into the service, again at Georgetown, Kentucky. Quoting his account, "We were marched some time in August, 1792, to Fort Washington, or Cincinnati " (he does not now recollect which of the names the place was called. "We were marched to the water of the White River, where we built a Garrison called Greenville." (Somewhere about 35 miles north of Evansville, Indiana.) "We lay there two months, then we marched to Fort Hamilton. From there we returned to Fort Washington and was there discharged a second time, on November 9, 1792." He again returned to Fayette County to live. The Generals he served under were Harnas (sic) and Anthony Wayne who was called "Mad Anthony" because of his reckless courage. Fayette County, Kentucky, is about 75 miles west of Morgan County, where the village of "Cottle" is situated. Joseph Cottle was a resident of Morgan County when he applied for a pension, in September, 1832.

[The Cottle Family Genealogy - James Benjamin Schwabe - c 1977 152 pgs]

Joseph Cottle was born in Virginia on March 17, 1772, in Augusta County. He married Nancy Nickell in Monroe County, (West) Virginia in Greenbrier Valley on Second Creek of the Greenbrier River just south of Lewisburg, (West) Virginia. That whole area was settled by Ulster Scots from the Shenandoah Valley near Staunton just prior to the Revolutionary War. The Cottles were a large branch of these Scotch-Irish settlers. They all settled in the Greenbrier area. After the Revolutionary War they moved to Eastern Kentucky, mostly in Morgan and Rowan Counties where they have many descendants. Some of these Cottles immigrated to Northeastern Kansas and Northcentral Missouri.

Nancy Nickell's (Joseph Cottle's wife) parents were Isaac Nickell and Margaret Curry; and her grandparents were John Nickell and Barbara McCombe who came to this country from Ireland and settled in Virginia in 1749. Some of the Nickell's also moved to Kentucky.

Joseph Cottle applied for a government pension two different times but never received it because he was too young for the Revolutionary War, but he was in General Harmer's and Wayne's Indian Wars. At the time he applied for his pension he was 61 years old and stated that he had lived in Greenbrier County, Virginia, and the counties of Fayette, Floyd, and Morgan Kentucky. The first time that he was in the service he substituted for William Vaughters and entered the service at Georgetown, Ky., in 1790. He was attached to Captain Cragg's company. They marched to Fort Washington where they joined the main army commanded by General Harmer. From there they were marched to the Maumee Towns and were in an engagement with the Indians where the Americans were defeated and Major Fountain was killed. (See Withers "Chronicles of Border Warfare" page 385 footnote one - originally page 286.) Then they returned to Fort Washington and sometime later he was discharged; his discharge papers were signed by General Harmer.

He entered the service again as a volunteer in 1792 at Georgetown, Ky., and was attached to the company commanded by Capt. Hall. From there they marched to Cincinnati and then to the waters of the White River where they built a garrison called Greenville. They were there two months, then marched to Fort Hamilton and from there they returned to Fort Washington and (he was) discharged for a second time. This time his papers were signed by General Anthony Wayne.

Joseph and Nancy Cottle had several children. Some of them were: Uriah, Rebecca, Isaac, David N., Margaret, Robert C., Elizabeth, Mary Polly, and James.

(Joseph Cottle and some of his descendants. Mrs. Hubert D. Nunn)

I also have a record of 61 days service in 1793, pay packet, etc.

Tax list appearances: Joseph married Nancy in Monroe County, (W)VA in 1799 and a Jacob Cottle appears on the Monroe tax list for that year.

That is likely Joseph with Jacob possibly being a middle name, thus:

1799	Monroe County	Jacob (Joseph) Cottle	1 horse
1800	Monroe County	Joseph Cottle	1 horse
1801	Monroe County	Joseph Cottle	1 horse
1802	Kanawha County	Joseph Cottle	1 horse

1806	Monroe County	Joseph Cottel	2 horses
1807	Monroe County	Joseph Cottral	1 horse
1808
1809	Monroe County	Joseph Cottle	4 horses
1810	Monroe County	Joseph Cottle	4 horses
1810	Montgomery Co., KY	Joseph Cottle
1811	Bath Co., KY	(Joseph Cottle not listed)
1820	Floyd Co., KY	Joseph Cottle
1830	Morgan Co., KY	Joseph Cottle
1840	Morgan Co., KY	(Joseph Cottle not listed)
1850	Morgan Co., KY	(Joseph Cottle not listed)
1852	Morgan Co., KY	Joseph Cottle dies

He may possibly have been in Lee County, Virginia in the period from late 1802 when his daughter Rebecca was born through early 1806 when he subsequently reappears on the Monroe County list.

July 21, 1783 - Present: Donally, Mathews, Renick, Anderson, Ward, Williams. Special term held for the purpose of trying Jame, Negro man slave of Patrick Davis for feloniously attempting a rape on the body of Mary Gray. Guilty and Sentenced to be hanged on August 4, next. Jame valued at 80 pounds current Money. Witnesses: Geo. & Mary Gray, Jos. Cottle.

(The above is actually info from two different court sessions which has been spliced together. See below.)

Court of 21 July 1783: Trial of Jame (a) Slave, a Negro man, the property of Patrick Davis, for feloniously attempting a rape on the body of Mary Gray. Mary Gray unable to attend this day by inability of body, therefore ordered Jame remanded to gaol on that account, and also on the complaint of George Gray who complains of a burglary committed by said Jame at the time he attempted the above felony and that the trial of premises be held at the courthouse on Saturday the 26th instant and sheriff ordered to summon the justices of this county to attend that day.

Court of 26 July 1783: Mary and George Gray came into court to prosecute and testified that Jame Slave, a Negro man slave, property of Patrick Davis of this county, on 14th day of July on the night of the same day broke into the house of said George Gray when said Mary was abed and asleep, the door being made fast with a gimblet and stool, and came into her bed and attempted to ravish her. Joseph Cottle was sworn a witness in this behalf. Court heard Jame I his own defense and upon consideration of court, it appears that Jame is guilty of the felony and burglary aforesaid and asked Jame if he has anything to say why the court should not proceed to pronounce sentence of death against him according to law upon said conviction, and Jame replied that he had already said all he had to say, wherefore, court sentences him to hang by the neck until dead on Monday 4th day of August next. Memo: Court valued said Jame at 80 pounds current money.

In Hardesty's material on Greenbrier County it mentions three Negroes being hanged in the county's history and Jame wasn't one of them so I wonder if his master managed to get the sentence overturned somehow. Haven't found any record of this occurring but then haven't looked too hard for it either. Doc.

Court of August 1809: (Specific date not recorded - or else not transcribed. Previous court date was 22 July and subsequent one was 26 September.)

Michael Bright vs Jos. Cottle, Jury to inquire of damages: John Adwell, Geo. Clingman, Adam Comber, Jas. W. Mathews, Henry Eathel, Thos. Creigh, John D. Littlepage, Conrod Ling, George Whetsel, Andrew Whitman, E. Gilkerson, and George Reader that they find for the plff 12-12-0 (12 pounds, 12 schillings) damages plus costs.

(It would appear that this loss in court precipitated Joseph's move to Kentucky the next year.)

Floyd County (S) Ambrose Jones. Died of consumption. Cynthia: Name quite often phonetically altered to Cynthia or Synthian but it is a result of the hill custom of pronouncing given names ending in an "a" with the sound "ee." Thus Cynthia became Cynthee and, when Ann was added to it, resulted in Cyntheann or Cynthian or Synthian. Talley rendered it as the obviously distorted Smithanna for some strange reason!! I've visited her grave and she was laid to rest as Cynthia Ann.

She married 13 Aug 1841 in Morgan Co., KY, USA, Hezekiah WYATT #288, b. circa 1817 in NC, USA, d. after 1880. She gave her age as 25 in 1850, as 39 in 1860, as 46 in 1870, & as 58 in 1880. Since she is Uriah and Cynthia's eldest AND they married in 1820 1822 would be a good ballpark figure, and remove the indication that she and Edward might've been twins. Hezekiah: Lists himself as from NC in 1850 but from KY thereafter. Gives his age as 36 in 1850, as 43 in 1860, as 52 in 1870, and as 63 in 1880. I settled on 1817 as the probable birth year since it matches 2 of the 4 ages he gave and is very close to a third.

The Pleasanton Observer Aug 18, 1883: Tragedy at Centerville - Another case of accidental shooting with fatal results occured in Centerville township on Wednesday. The injured man was John T. Cottle. He came from Kentucky last February, and was working for his second cousin, Thos. Cottle, at whose house the accident occurred; the other party in the tragedy is Chauncy Winans, of Garnett, who is visiting his grandfather, Dr. Winans, of Centerville. The boys are nearly the same age, about twenty. John and James Cottle were upstairs getting ready to go to trial in the Justice's court. One of them had opened a trunk to get a pocket-book and sat down, leaving it open. A small revolver lay in the tray, and Winans entered and asked the size, then walked over and picked it up. He was handling the weapon carelessly when it discharged, the ball taking effect in John's side, near the fourth rib and ranging upward and backward to the chest. He died in an hour. His father in Kentucky was notified, but the internment took place in Centerfille.

Perhaps he died in infancy? Had no children. Is the Thomas W. Cottle who md Sarah Liz Harris on 10 Jan 1884 in Morgan Co. the same man as this one? In the 1880 census there was only 1 Harris household and there was no Sarah Liz Harris in it. I'm assuming, unless better information refutes it, that William Thomas Cottle and Thomas W. Cottle are the same person, and that Victoria Conley was a second marriage for him.

He married (2) 20 May 1866 in Texhoma, OK, USA, Luduska CLAPP #5726, b. 14 Apr 1838 in Ohio, USA, d. 14 Mar 1910 in Texhoma, OK, USA, buried: in Texhoma Cemetery, Texhoma,OK, USA. David died 7 Jun 1919 in Texhoma, OK, USA, buried: in Texhoma Cemetery, Texhoma,OK, USA. Robert and Hannah's 3rd child was David N. In 1862 he joined the Union Army and was a private in Company G 12th Regiment, Kansas, Inf. He enrolled for 3 years and was mustered out at the end of the Civil War. Dave owned several race horses during his lifetime. One of his horses was Bay Jim, and in the fall of 1884 he entered him in a horse event that took place in Pleasanton, Ks. This horse race was something new for that part of the country. He entered the horse for the mile money, but Bay Jim lost. However he won many other races. Another race horse that Dave owned was a big bay gelding named Ace of Diamonds. This horse was nervous, irritable, a vicious brute that was crazy on the track and had to be blindfolded to get him started. However he was a whirlwind known at all race tracks in Kansas and won a fortune in purses. (John David Day and John Milton Day, brothers of Dave's mother, also had race horses, some of which were well known.) Two more of Dave's horses were Hattie B. and Mattie D., but the most famous of all his race horses was John Griffin II. This horse was a tremendously big and powerful chestnut gelding. He is known to have won 3 races in one afternoon at 3/8, 1/2, & 5/8 of a mile. Dave got John Griffin II from a country doctor in Parker and he had been driven to a buggy until he was 6 years old. He broke the record for 5/8 of a mile on Jan. 13, 1910. He raced in the United States, Canada and Mexico. He ate a great deal, lay down a lot, was a superior mudder and won on any kind of track or in any kind of going. He knew what he was on the track for; eh would stand flat-footed at the barrier as quiet as a lamb, and then buck-jump as the rope was lifted. There was an article written by Colonel Stingo in the Racing Digest about this horse years ago. Dave was a farmer and his farm was 1 mile northwest of Parker, KS. On April 14, 1893, there was a bad cyclone (tornado? Doc) in that part of Kansas and Dave's house was completely destroyed. Sometime around 1911 or 1912 David N. moved to Texhoma, Oklahoma, where he had a declaratory claim; and there he lived the remainder of his life. Lydia: Moved to Kansas with parents after 1855.

Milton was the 6th child of Robert C. and Hannah Cottle. Milton was too young to be a soldier in the Civil War, but since his brothers, Tom and Dave were in, he ran away and joined as a drummer boy. He was 16 years of age at that time. He was in company G, 12th Kansas Inf. under Capt. Burn, the same Company his brother Dave was assigned to. He was a farmer and his farm was north of Parker. Milton played the violin "by ear" and he could play anything that he heard. One of his sisters gave him a very good violin before she died. The violin had belonged to the man she was engaged to marry. He had given it to her when he went to war; however he was killed in action. Milton died age 57. Milton Cottle obituary: The subject of this obituary was born in Kentucky March 20th, 1845 and died Dec. 27th 1902, at his home just north of town. He was 57 years old and was among the early settlers of this section of Linn county. He came from Kentucky with his parents in an early day, and has since made Liberty township his home. On March 6th, 1872 he was married to Miss Sarah Layman, to which union were born three daughters, all of whom survive him. "Milt" as he was known to the people of Liberty township, had hosts of friends, he was a kind and obliging neighbor, an indulgent father and loving husband. The many friends of the deceased join in sympathy with the bereaved widow and daughters. The funeral was held Monday afternoon at the residence north of town, conducted by Rev J M Cockrill, and the remains were laid to rest in Highland Cemetery.

Swetnam still seems to be very much alive. I leave it for now until I can get it sorted out. Dennis doesn't show up in the 1880 census anywhere. John: I'm thinking he married a different Mary S. iii Beth COTTLE #21389, b. in 1871 ??, d. in 1878 ??. She doesn't appear in the 1870 or 1880 census. 1871 is a likely year for her birth since Dan and Sarah had children born in 1869 (probably), 1870 and 1872. Further Beth died at 7 years old so would have to be born prior to 1873.

137. iv Lucinda "Lucy" Frances COTTLE #116 b. circa 1872.

Ernest Carter records that Boone married a Nan Burnett. Cannot confirm this. Darlene Day-Fairchild says she was a Barnett. Angie sent me the picture attached. It has written on the back "Boon and Nan Cottle" in Lucy Cottle-Day's handwriting. He reportedly killed himself when he was about 21. Any children? I don't know.

He married (1) Elida GARRATT #5712, b. 28 Jul 1881, d. 21 Jul 1913 in Linn Co., KS, USA, buried: in Pleasanton City Cem., Pleasanton, KS. He married (2) circa 1919, Dema CRUSER #5714. Albert died 11 Jun 1970. Albert was such an interesting fellow and enjoyed life so much. Albert went to Normal School (Teacher's School) and, while in his teens, taught school in Kansas and Oklahoma until he was about 21 or a little older. He began work as deputy marshal in Wewoka, Indian Territory in 1903. He later served at Ardmore, Vinita, Muskogee and finally went to Tulsa as Chief Deputy U. S. Marshall in 1929.

When he was first an officer in Indian territory, which became Oklahoma in 1907, the government offices were the only law enforcing agencies. Criminals respected and feared the law then. He only shot his pistol once in all those 50 years and he said he guessed the man was still running. His work after statehood was mainly in the office. He kept accounts and handled several million dollars in writing checks to jurors, witnesses, expenses, and salaries to a staff of deputies with never an error. He could tell interesting experiences of going on raids and of capturing counterfeiters. He wanted to be a lawyer and took the job as deputy on a temporary basis so that he could earn the money to pay for his law course. He went to night school and passed the Oklahoma State Bar examinations; he was a member of the Bar all his life but never practiced. He loved his work and never really regretted that he didn't practice; after all, law enforcement was closely related. In 1949 Albert received a citation for 46 years of outstanding and meritorious service. He was one of only 6 men in the U. S. Justice Department selected for that award, and the only one in the marshal's division to receive the honor. He and Dema did a lot of traveling around the country; they were the kind of people who were so easy to know and lots of fun to be around. He loved to play the piano and he played many other musical instruments all "by ear" and composed many melodies. Albert died June 11, 1970. His wife survived him and lived in their home in Tulsa.

1942 (title: "The Face of Crime). Supplied considerable material for Horan's "Pictorial History of the Southwest", published 1954. Story of his life is contained in "The Ranchman", October, 1957, in a column "Oldtimers of the Will Rogers Country" by Myron A. Hurd. (Above sketch by Henry E. Cottle, 116 Stearns Street, Bristol, CN. Corrections or amendments requested.)

Following material from article by Helen Price Stacy in the March 9, 1959 Licking Valley Courier:

While a law officer in Indian Territory Al Cottle witnessed many trials and prosecutions of Indians according to their tribal laws. Indian lawbreakers usually were meted a whipping sentence which was administered by Creek or Seminole lighthorsemen, the Indian policemen. "I have seen some prisoners cry and beg for mercy, but never an Indian" said Marshall Cottle. "The Indians took their punishment without a word."

Al Cottle knew personally many of the outlaws in the old west. He had dealings with Texas Jack, the outlaw preacher whose real name was Nathaniel Reed. Al Jennings, Henry Starr, and others whose names have been familiar to the 10 year old cowboy set via television.

Cottle's photograph has a place of honor today in an old dance hall at Ghost Town, Buena Park, Calif. He is one of Oklahoma's most publicized citizens.

He returned to Morgan County a few years ago to visit at Cottle Bend and go over the acres of rolling farmland cut from a wilderness many years ago by his great grandfather, Joseph Cottle, who himself had been a fighter for freedom and peace in this country's first frontier.

Note: although Ms Stacy believed at the time that Joseph had fought in the Revolution his application for pension shows 1790-93 in the Ohio country. Elida: Died in childbirth.

Charley died 16 Jan 1973. According to Mindy Gerst and her husband Charley bought Ruby with a mule. Charley worked for Jesse Stuart and lived in what was called Charley's Cabin. It burned down a few years back. His grandson, also Charlie Cottle, claims to've burned it down. Mindy thinks it was on Beechy Creek. She's going to check. (She checked and now says it was in W Hollow.) She says that Jesse apparently liked Charley quite well even though Charley had a reputation as a mean drunk.

Are we dealing with a twin or something? Ruby: Purchased by husband with a mule according to Mindy Gerst and her husband. Left Charlie in later life, went to Missouri and, it would seem, remarried without bothering to dissolve her existing marriage as she served time there for bigamy.

Lived in a house without any facilities (not even a door - used a blanket) and a gutted school bus sitting beside it. Had a wood stove for cooking and, apparently, a path for bathroom purposes. From what Mindy Gerst and her husband say the place is still there in Greenup County.

Mindy believes that Beulah was married to Clarence Dillow but all of their children were put up for adoption.

She doesn't know if Beulah was married to Robert Copley or not but does attribute one child she knows of to him.

Apparently there were other children as well but she hasn't been able to develop that information so far.

I'm the daughter of Lucy Myrtle Cottle (I was given up for adoption), granddaughter of Charlie Cottle. Dan Cottle (who lives in Lexington) is Lucy's nephew. Are you related to them? I have a lot of questions about the family. Please respond when you get time.

Thanks.
Rosa

Hello Doc,

Good to hear from you. I have spoke with rosa a few times ...she lives in lex too, She is Lucy Myrtle's daughter that was given up...shes got another brother that was adopted too ,, Terry in Florida. Shes got two siblings living on the KY-OH line up around Southshore. She has met them,,she met them and my birth mother when she was younger. Honestly ... I couldnt tell you what she could possibly be looking for - did she say? She doesnt keep in touch with her siblings because they want me to go check on her, but my thoughts on that are she doesnt want contact with them. Actually, when the search was on for my birth family, there was a flag on the files about Rosa ,, she was one of the first people I spoke with. Shes the one that told me about the living conditions that Beulah had ,, curtain on the door and such.

Thanks

My Aunt Martha Fannin Rose thinks we played together when you lived in West Liberty. If you did live in West Liberty, then you might have lived across the alley from my Grandmother Cora Fannin. And, the Cottle boys I remember were coaxed by older boys to drop a match into the May's Wholesale gas tank in about 1943. If you remember the "big-bang" and the bandage that one of you wore on you head, then we played together. Or, was that another set of Cottles?

I'll ask Martha which Cottle family lived across the alley. And, thanks for the info on the reunion, we might be in KY the last week of June.
Dick

DOC, the Cottle that lived across the alley from my grandmother Fannin, in West Liberty, was Rodney Cottle. He was married to a Williams, I am told by my aunt.

Dick

D.O.,

My Aunt Martha passed the additional on the Cottle family today. The Cottle family that lived across the alley from my Grandmother Cora Fannin was Rodney Cottle, married to Anna Williams.

Rodney's father was B.F. Cottle and the son that blew up the gasoline tank (I think) was Rodney, Jr.

I hasten to add, the mischief of older boys was the reason that the Cottle youngster dropped a match into the tank because Rodney Jr. couldn't have been more than 8 years of age, and most probably was younger.

Hope the reunion is a success.

Regards--Dick Craft
